HOLLIS NOTES

compiled by Albert D. Bell, Rockland, Ohio

J O H N H O L L I S, one of the very earliest settlers in Maryland, was the first of that name to appear in the Chesapeake Bay area. Some authorities list him as one of those came to America with the "Ark" and "Dove" colonists. He is described as a mariner in one ancient record. Another says that he came from Virginia to Maryland. The compiler is not attempting to prove any preconceptions or assumptions, but is looking for facts. Here are some incontestable facts about John Hollis:

His name appears, under several spellings, in early Maryland Provincial Court records. (See: Archives of Maryland, vol. 1 of Court Series.)

"The History of the Society of Jesus in North America, Colonial and Federal," by the Rev. T. Hughes, S.J. - Vol. 1, p.338, records the first marriage ceremony at which Father White officiated:

Parties: - JOHN HOLLIS and RESTITUTA TUE.

Witnesses: - Cuthbert Fenwick, faithful agent and trustee of the Fathers, and Robert Ferry.

Date: - 2 June 1639.

Archives of Maryland, Vol. 1 of Court Series, page 139, presents this record of that marriage:

"John Hollis made oath that he is not precontracted to any other woman than Restituta Tue to marry. 2 June 1639. The marriage of the said John Hollis with the said Restituta Tue this day by Mr. Thos. White."

(signed) LEWGER, Secretary.

In 1657, Restituta Hollis reported to the Court that her husband, John Hollis, had been "fatally killed" (sic)!

The compiler has seen no evidence of the names of children of the said John and Restituta (Tue) Hollis, - if any. BUT, there were these (probably) younger Hollises in the area records after 1657:

Ambrose, 1668/9, - Barbary, 1666/7, - Edmond, 1667, - Elizabeth, 1664, - Henry, 1663, - James, 1679, - and WILLIAM, 1657, 1659, - Edward, 1666, - Nicholas, 1666/7.

Several competent genealogists have told me that it is their opinion that these were children of the said John Hollis; but this compiler is not prepared to state this as a fact! To emphasize this, the main body of these "Hollis Notes" begins on page 4, after the indices to Hollis probate records in Archives of Maryland and Delaware.

Clark Frisby Hollis (1777-1844) is the principal subject of this work; but the compiler has presented herein all of the genealogical data that he has gathered on the entire Hollis family of Maryland and Delaware, in all of its branches. He hopes that these notes may prove helpful to all who may use them.

"Preliminary Report on Descendants of Snow Jones, etc." (1947) and "Edgell Notes" (1948) should be used in connection with "Hollis Notes".

The compiler is unable to undertake the publication of his genealogical data in any more expensive form; but he is willing to share his findings, as time and finances permit.

The foregoing index to Hollis probate records in Maryland and Delaware may contain some minor errors. Its principal value lies in the fact that it gives the reader a fairly comprehensive view of the amount of material available, its nature, and age, - and some clues to the existence of evidence not covered in "Calendar of Maryland Wills" or other published works.

Items preceded by an asterisk * are of particular interest to descendants of Clark Frisby and Levina (Spence) Hollis, of Sussex County, Delaware.

NOTE: Amos Hollis married Frances Osborn (Harford Co.) -Chancery Proceedings, Liber 173, folio 178

(Note: A contemporary, John Hollis, died intestate Fairfax Co., Va., 1768)

*CLARK HOLLIS migrated to Dorchester Co., Md., 1761, as will be shown. Sometime before 1755, he married Hannah 'Lecia' Hynson, dau. of Nathaniel Hynson, Jr.

IMPORTANT - The principal purpose of these notes is to show the ancestry of the Northwest Fork Hundred, Sussex County, Delaware, family of Clark Frisby Hollis. To accomplish this purpose, the compiler takes the liberty of inserting its HYNSON ancestry at this point. (The Harford County, Md., Hollis families, descended from William Hollis, IV, and Amos Hollis, I, will have a special section devoted to their history, immediately following the principal part of these notes, at PAGE 29.)

ANCESTRY OF HANNAH LECIA HOLLIS

(nec Hynson)

wife of Clark Hollis (II)

*Thomas Hynson (1620-1667), lived and owned property in Isle of Wight County, Va., 1643-1646. -(p. 128, Va. Mag., 1898, v.406; Wm. & Mary Coll. Quarterly, 1899, vii, 291.)

He was of that group of Virginia Puritans who came into Maryland, 1649-1650. He received a warrant 23 June 1651 for 400 a. on Eastern Neck Island, opp. Love Point; but he continued to live on Kent Island until he moved to the mainland to what became in 1662 Talbot County. He patented a tract of 2200 acres, "Hinchingham", on the mainland. He was a member of the Kent Co. Court, 1652-1658; clerk in 1652-1653; member of the Assembly from Kent; including the insurgent Assembly called by Fendall in 1660. For this, he was debarred for 7 years from holding office and was obliged to give bond for his good behavior! His political sympathies seem to have been pro-Parliament and anti-Proprietary in the Fendall 'rebellion'.

Just after the restoration of Charles II and the overthrow of Fendall, (13 Feb. 1660/1) according to deposition of a Mary Baxter, Thomas Hynson was accused of saying "now wee are in his Maiestys Dog hous," but nothing was done about his disrespectful speech. (pp. xvii, 197, Vol. LIV, Archives of Md., #7 of Court Series)

See also: pp. 99, 224, 297, 301, 325, 337, 347, 353, 354, 381, -"Old Kent", Hanson, 1876 Ed., Balto., Md.

Circumstantial evidence seems to indicate that the Christian name of the wife of Thomas Hynson was "Anne", and that she may have been older than he.

Thomas Hynson, Jr., (16-- - 1679) was one of the very first Commissioners of Talbot County.

*JOHN HYNSON, a son of Thomas Hynson, Sr., was a member of the Maryland Legislature, 1694-1697, inclusive; Judge-Commissioner of Kent County Court, 1674-1677, and 1685; elected Burgess of the County 28 August 1694; elected Vestryman of St. Paul's Church 18 November 1697; Sheriff of Kent County, 1705. He died and was buried at St. Paul's Church, 10 May 1705. Children of John and Ann Hynson were: John, *Nathaniel, Sarah, Elizabeth (who married a Mr. Rodgers), Jane (who married a Philip Holcager and had a son Nathaniel), and Mary Hynson (who married a Mr. Glanville).

ABSTRACT OF WILL OF JOHN HYNSON :-

Dated 2 Dec. 1704; pr. 5 Jan. 1705.

Kent Co. Wills #540 (also, p. 118, Kent Co. Wills 1669-1710) - Maryland Archives.

- "My son John - dwelling and all land I have in the Eastern Neck and all plantations and land, and at his death to my grandson John Hynson.

- "I give my loving wife Ann Hynson all of my estate that was hers when I married her.

" debts to be paid from crop of corn and tobacco; - balance to wife Ann and daughter Sarah Hynson.

Will mentions: son *NATHANIEL Hynson, daughter Jane Holiger, daughter Elizabeth Rogers, and daughter Mary Glanville, - - in addition to those above.

*NATHANIEL HYNSON (son of John Hynson) - generally known as Col. Nathaniel Hynson, and his second wife, *Mary Kelley, were married 6 August 1714. He was elected a Vestryman of St. Paul's Church 14 April 1707 and again 6 April 1713. He was holder of pew #1 in the new church building, 18 April 1720; - and was a member of the Maryland Legislature from Kent County, 1716, 1719, 1720, 1721. ("Old Kent" - by Hanson)

"ACCOUNT OF MATHEW BROWN, Administrator of the estate of Nathaniel Hynson, deceased," confirms the Hynson ancestry of the Sussex County, Delaware, Hollis families in these significant words:

- " - a legacy of one negro girl called Dido, six sheep,

NOTE :- The above named CLARK HOLLIS was a son of William Hollis (III) of Baltimore County. His uncle of the same name died in 1721; and his nephew of the same name was born in 1750 and died in 1819, as will be shown. THIS Clark Hollis (who married Hannah Lecia Hynson) was the only Clark Hollis who could have been "over 50" years of age in census of Bridgetown Md., Caroline Co., 1776.

* CLARK HOLLIS (II)

(a son of William Hollis, III)

(nephew of Clark Hollis, I.)

born Baltimore County, circa 1723; died Caroline Co. 1790

On 16 April, 1761, Clark Hollis "OF BALTIMORE COUNTY in the Province of Maryland" purchased a tract of land in DORCHESTER COUNTY, Md., containing 100 acres, more or less, "Stewart's Exchange", from Edward Ross and his wife Mary. Purchase price was one hundred fifty seven pounds lawful money of the Province of Maryland. Alienation fine of 4 shillings, Sterling, due to Lord Baltimore, paid 20 April 1761.

On 20 April, 1761, John Stewart sold the upper moiety of the tract called Stewart's Exchange, in Dorchester County, "on the south side of the south east Branch of Watt's Creek," - being 100 acres, for 15 pounds current money of Maryland. Alienation fine due to Lord Baltimore (4 shillings Sterling) paid 23 April 1761.

ABSTRACT OF THE WILL of CLARK HOLLIS:-

(dated 24 Oct. 1789; pr. 6 Feb. 1790)
 (Vol. JR^WB, folio 149; Denton, Md.)
 (Original in Md. Archives, Annapolis)

"I, Clark Hollis, of Caroline County and State of Maryland, being in perfect health and of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say;

"I give and bequeath all the money that shall or may be due or owing to me from a certain Thomas Baynard his heirs or assigns, for two tracts of land sold the said Baynard, unto my five children following, viz, - *CLARK FRISBY HOLLIS, Amos Hollis, John Hollis, Levish Rhodes, and Lesha Hollis, their heirs and assigns, - " etc.

Thomas Baynard was named Executor of the estate.

NOTE: WILLIAM HOLLIS, eldest son of Clark and Hannah Lecia (Hynson) Hollis, was not mentioned in the will. He and his brother Amos (the latter usually known as Hinson Hollis) signed the inventory of their father's estate, 9 Aug. 1790.

It was not uncommon for a father to make substantial gifts to his children, while alive; - which probably was done in the case of William Hollis. There can be no doubt that he was, indeed, a son of Clark Hollis by his first and only wife Hannah Lecia (Hynson) Hollis, born circa 1760.

Amos HINSON HOLLIS was born circa 1765, a son of Clark and Hannah Lecia (Hynson) Hollis. He drew his will 17 October 1806; will probated in Sussex County, Del., 19 November 1806. Heirs named: - Wife, Sylva; sons Clark, Dennard, Clement, Zadock, William, and Hinson Hollis; daughters Peggy and Nancy Hollis.

Witnesses to will:

* Lovey Hollis (nee Spence, wife of Frisby Hollis), and Levin Todd.
 - Wills and Administrations, Sussex County,
 vol. A 77, pp. 143-144; Del. Archives, Dover.

Sylva Hollis, widow of Amos Hinson Hollis, died in June or July 1817. She named in her will sons Dennard, Zadock, William, and Hinson Hollis; daughters Peggy Hennings and Nancy Hollis. To her 'sister' (in law)

*LOVA HOLLIS she willed one negro girl called Mary. William Hollis was named executor of her estate. (Brother-in-law?)

John Hollis (brother-in-law) and Joseph Gray, witnesses.

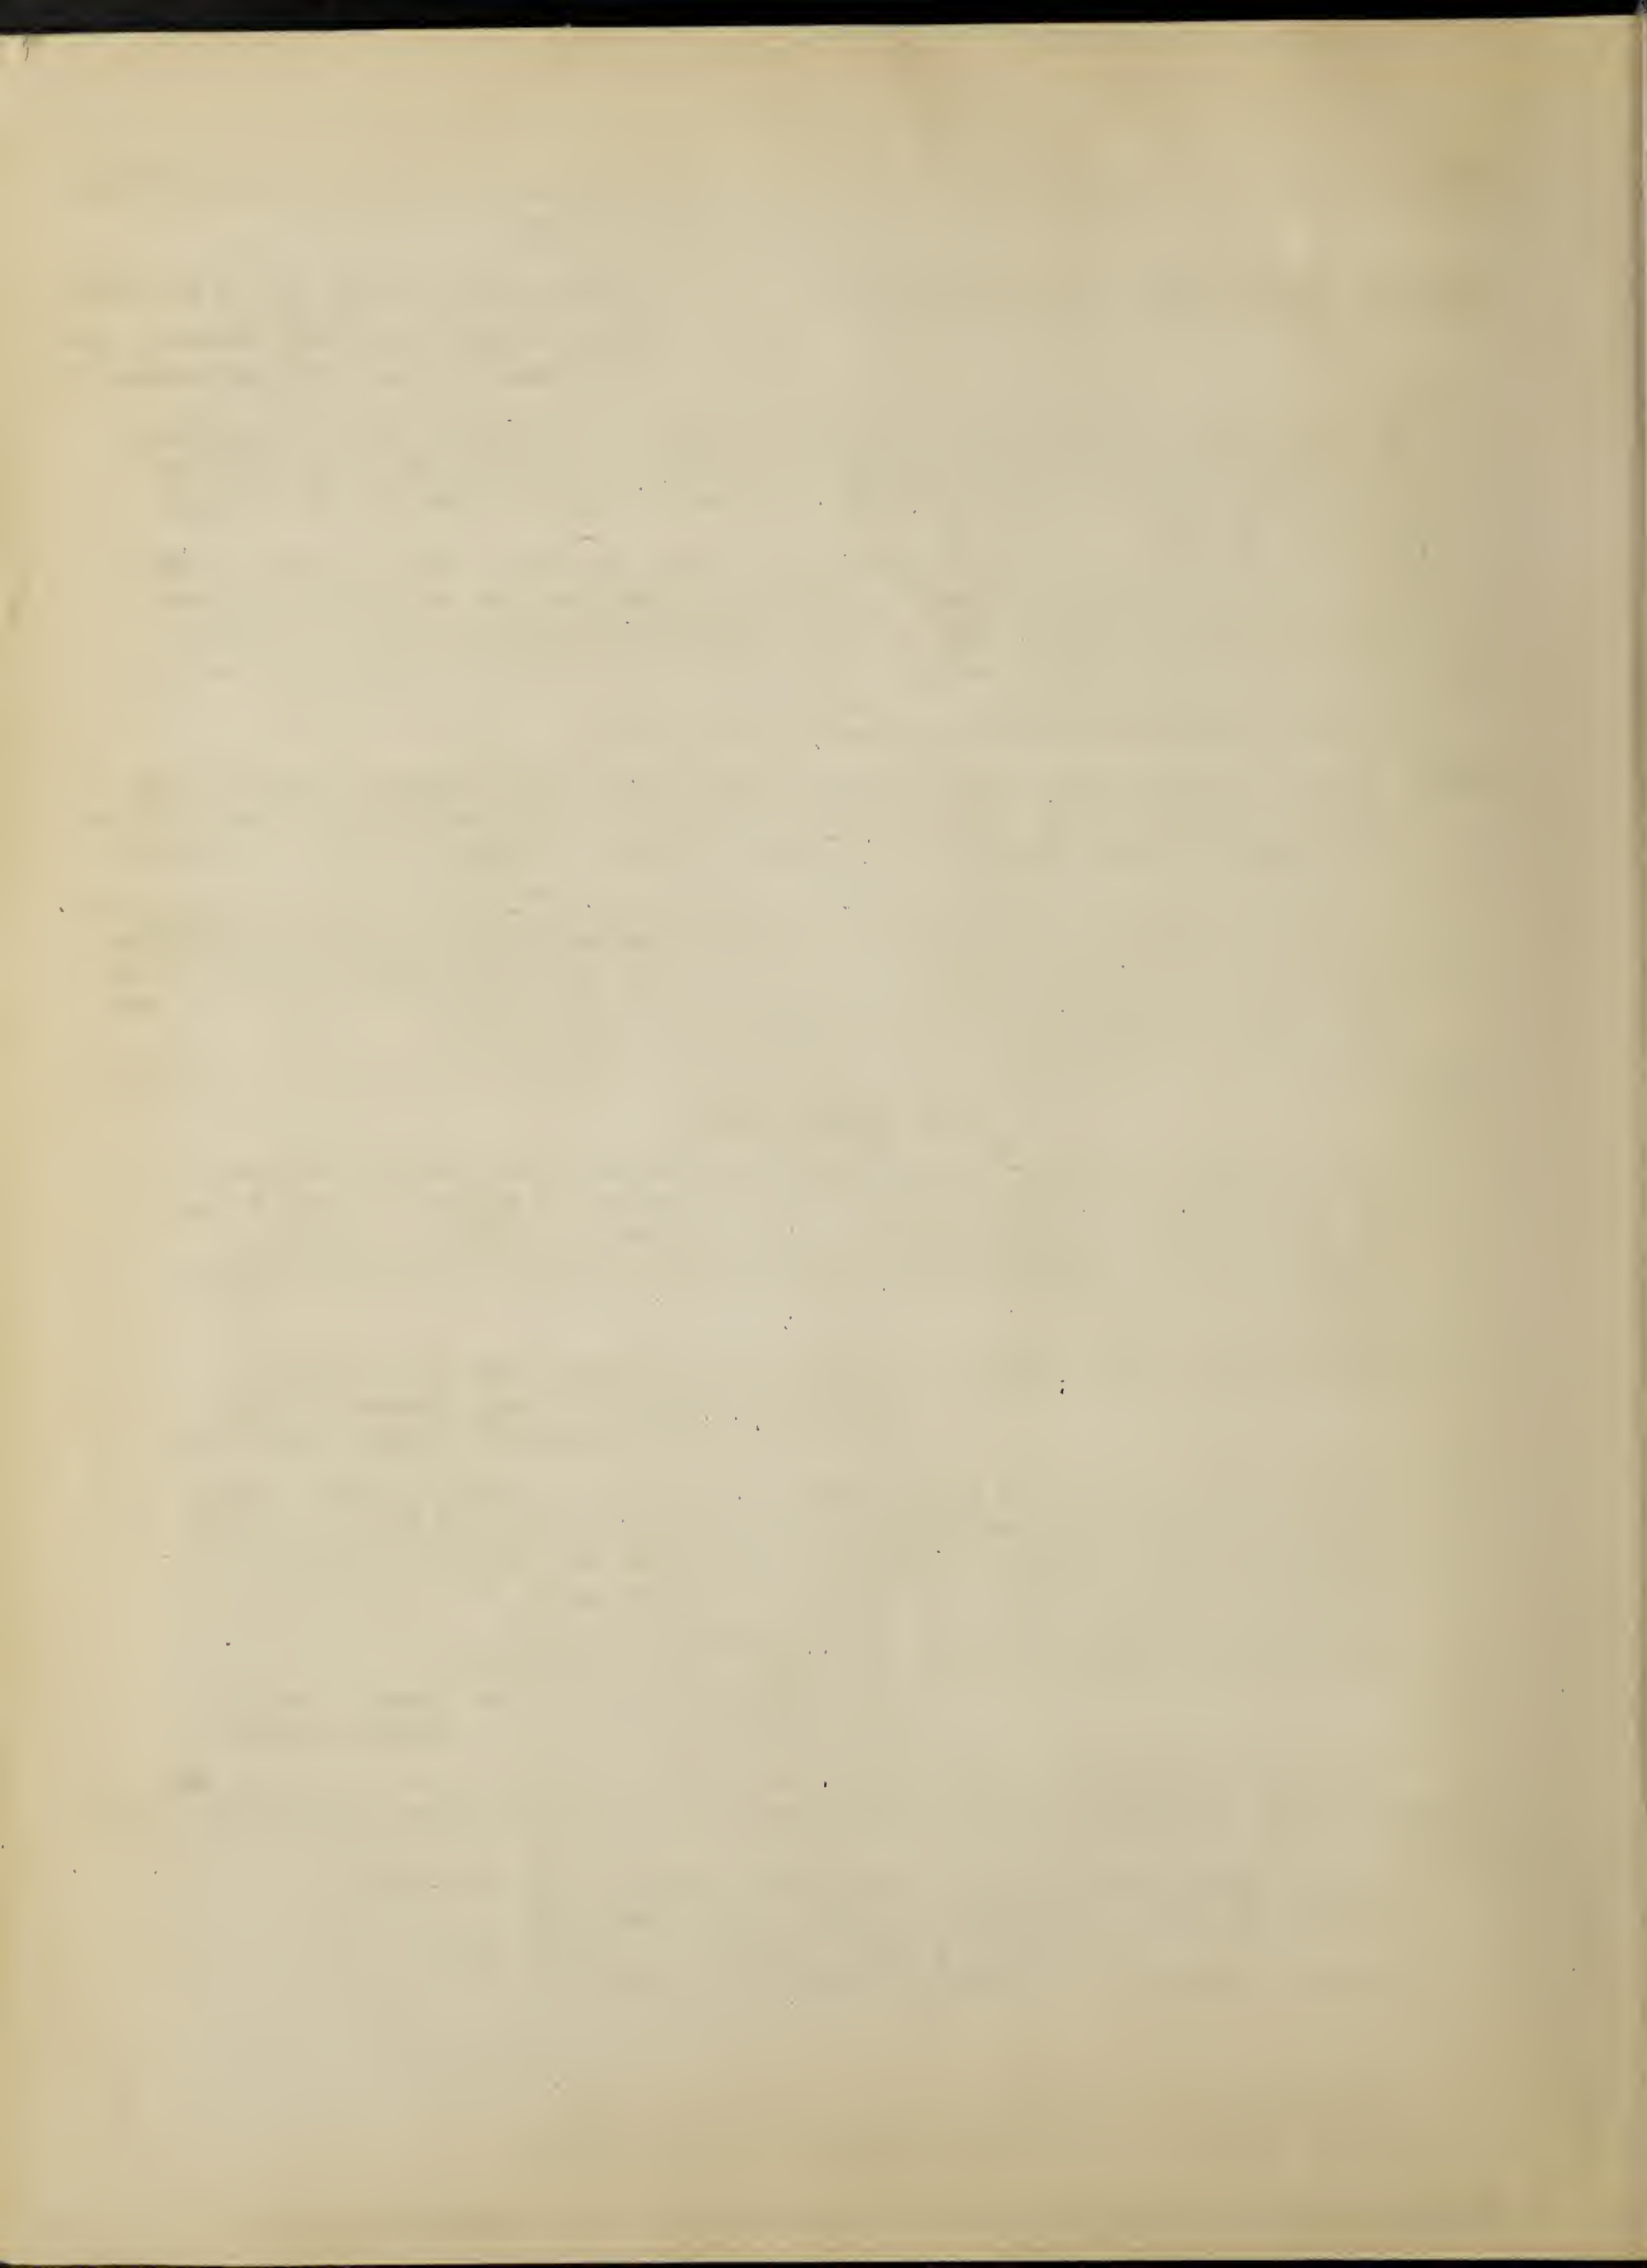

- Wills and Administrations, Sussex County,
 vol. A 77 (see index) - Archives, Dover.

Clark and Clement may have died between 1806 and 1817. Del. Marriage Records, in the Archives at Dover, show the following marriages of children of Hinson & Sylva Hollis:

✓ Amos (Hinson) Hollis, (Jr.) - Elizabeth Gullett, - 24 Feb. 1803
 ✓ Dennard Hollis, - Elizabeth Herino, - 22 June 1820
 " " - bride's name missing - 14 Oct. 1823
 ✓ Zadock Hollis - Elizabeth Hennis, - 17 Oct. 1825

✓ William Hollis - Elizabeth Lane, 23 April 1825.
 ✓ Peggy Hollis - William Hennings, 2 January 1817.

SYLVIA HOLLIS - on tax rolls of Northmost Fork Hundred, Sussex Co., 1812

WILLIAM HOLLIS (a son of Clark II) "past 45" - 1820 Census

This William Hollis witnessed will of *John Spence, Sussex Co., Del., 18 Mar. 1789; administered estate of sister-in-law, Sylva Hollis, 1817; was on tax rolls of Sussex Co., 1812; etc. It is the compiler's OPINION that this William Hollis (then a widower) married Milchaiah (Milkey) Grumbel 11 Sept. 1825, and that his son William H. Hollis married Eliza Ann Saulsbury 19 Dec. 1831. Anyone who is interested in pursuing the matter may inspect the records at Dover (if possible) or employ a local genealogist to do so. (The compiler recommends: George V. Massey II, 55 King St., Dover, Del., for Delaware genealogical research. He is capable and he does know the material available.)

ABSTRACT OF WILL of WILLIAM HOLLIS (Sr.), of Kent, Del. A24, pp. 228-231; Archives. Dated 2 Aug. 1832. pr. 2 Oct. 1832. Names heirs: wife, Milchaiah; sons William and Noah Hollis; and daughter Rachel Hardesty. Executors: Chas., John, and Zach. Jones.

ABSTRACT OF WILL of MILCHA HOLLIS, of Kent Co., Del. - Vol. A24, pp. 225, 227, Archives. Names heirs: David Taylor (of David), Sarah Ann Fisher (dau. of Jabez Fisher), Rachel Hardesty (wid. of Garretson Hardesty), heirs of Garretson Hardesty: - Geo. W., Elizabeth A., Mary E., Caroline, John H., and James E. Hardesty. Will dated 18 Jan. 1842; pr. 13 July 1842.

Since Milcha(iah) Hollis did not mention William or Noah (sons of William, Sr.), it would seem that she was not their mother. Sympathy for widowed stepdaughter (?) may have prompted bequests to her.

JOHN HOLLIS (a son of Clark II) - "past 45" - 1820 Census.

- Married Ann (Nancy) Legg - 10 Feb. 1806 -

According to an old letter in possession of the compiler, something "horrible" (sic) happened to "Uncle John and cozin Eli" Hollis, at the same time, the nature of which was known to sender and recipient of the letter. (But not to the compiler!) Letters of Administration of the estate of John Hollis granted to Nancy Hollis, 28 July 1829; - of estate of Eli Hollis to Eliza Hollis, 11 August 1829. Nancy later married Jabez Layton; Eliza married Elijah Victor.

- Sussex Co., Del., Wills & Adms, Vol. A77, pp. 138, 139; 145-147. Del. Archives, - Dover.

Military Record: circa 1812

* CLARK FRISBY HOLLIS, youngest son of Clark Hollis and his wife Hannah Lecia (Hynson) Hollis,

born in Bridgetown Hundred, Caroline Co., Md.,

on MARCH 8, 1777

Married LEVINA SPENCE, daughter of John and Nancy Spence, Sussex County, Delaware, December 29th, 1803.

He died December 22nd, 1844, at the age of 67 years, 9 months, 14 days. His widow departed this life September 30th, 1845, at the age of 65 years, 8 months, 10 days. (She was born January 20th, 1780.)

SPENCE RECORDS: (Continued)WILL OF JOHN SPENCE (of Sussex County, Delaware):

"In the Name of God Amen I John Spence of the County of Sussex in the Delaware State being in a low state of health of body but of sound and disposing mind and memory," (etc.) "I give and bequesth unto my son Nathan Spence - - this my dwelling plantation, - - " - - unto my son Enoch Spence one Horse, Bridle and Saddle worth Twenty Pounds, one cow and calf, one sow and pigs and one ewe and lambs. - And all the residue of my estate equally to be divided amongst my three daughters, Peggy Spence, LEVINA * SPENCE, and Tamsey Spence." - - my well beloved wife Nancy Spence shall be quietly possessed of all my estate, both real and personal, during her widowhood." (etc.) - Dated: 18 March 1789; probated 20 April 1789. Recorded in Liber D 4, f.222, Georgetown, Del. & Vol. A100, p41, Delaware Archives, Dover.

Witnesses to will: Olive Jump, Jesse Jester, and WILLIAM HOLLIS.

ACCOUNT OF NANCY SPENCE, Administratrix of Estate of John Spence (deceased), exhibited 10 November 1795; - Vol. A100, p.41, Del. Archives, Dover.

THIS Nancy Spence (mother of Levina Spence Hollis) died 14 June, 1835, aged 88 years.

NOTE: - In spite of 'traditions' to the contrary; this John Spence was NOT the son of Adam Spence, Jr. John Spence (of Adam) also had wife Nancy; but that John Spence died before 20 November 1787, when Letters of Administration were issued to the widow in Worcester Co., Md. She later married Capt. Geo. Handy. The compiler has not read the Handys' probate records, at Snow Hill, Md.; nor has he discovered any proof of the ancestry of the John and Nancy Spence whose daughter LEVINA married Clark FRISBY HOLLIS on 29 December 1803. If and when the evidence is found, all recipients of these notes will be notified.

*Nancy Spence, Nathan and Enoch Spence, William Hollis' and *FRISBY HOLLIS' names appear on the tax rolls of Northwest Fork Hundred, Sussex Co., Del., 1812; Broad Creek Hd., 1826; etc. (Office of Clerk of Peace, Georgetown, Del.) He witnessed the will of Ralph Robinson, 31 December 1831, at which time he was described as a resident of Northwest Fork Hd. (Wills, Sussex Co., Vol. H-8, p. 150.)

He paid $5.50 for 11 acres of vacant land, 16 Jan. 1838. (Patents, Y-23, p.101) Same volume, p. 100, - Isaac Cannon permitted to hold 11 acres in Northwest Fork Hundred, adjoining lands of Frisby Hollis and others.

"This day the Governor signed a patent in favor of Frisby Hollis of Sussex County, for eleven acres of land called 'Neglect', situated in North West Fork Hundred, in said County of Sussex." (3 Feb. 1838) - p. 353, Governor's Register, 1674-1851.

Patent from the State of Delaware to Frisby Hollis for 11 acres known as 'Neglect'. Patents U-11, p.59. Index, Deeds, Georgetown, Del.

Frisby Hollis held other land which the deed indices at Georgetown fail to explain. (Compiler neglected to search under spelling "Phrisby" Hollis, or under full name of Clark Frisby Hollis.)

The 1840 U.S. Census of Delaware showed Frisby and Charles "HOLLACE" as residents of North West Fork Hundred, Sussex Co; - John and Enoch HOLLIS as residents of Mispillion Hundred, Kent Co., Del.

Frisby, Silas, and Charles Hollis were taxed in Northwest Fork Hd., 1840, - p. 1303, "History of Delaware" -Scharf.

FRISBY HOLLIS died 22 Dec.1844, as aforesaid. Letters of Administration were granted 30 December 1844; distribution account filed 19 June 1848. (Vol. A77, pp.140-142, Archives, Dover.) Heirs named: - Wife: Levina; Children: Enoch, John, Charles, Silas, and Frisby Hollis, Thomas Williams and wife (nee Tamsey Hollis), and Samuel C. Jones and wife (nee Lovey Hollis).

*LEVINA (Spence) HOLLIS, (pet name "Lovey") was "sick of body but of sound mind" when she executed her will, 18 September, 1845. She bequeathed "to Enoch Hollis, my son, my four wheel carriage, curtains, bed, and furniture upstairs, my large blue chest, also one white yearling, and all wages due me for George's wages this year. (Evidently a slave) - To Lovey Jones, my daughter, my cow. - To Frisby Hollis, my son, my black boy George until he may be free, - my bureau, also my curtain bedstead, bed, and furniture standing on the lower floor." - Son Enoch Hollis, executor. Phillips Noble, Wm. H. Sipple, and Wm. Ellegood, witnesses. Will proved 18 February 1846. (A caveat against the probate had been entered 10 October 1845, by son John Hollis, who contended that the will was NOT the last will and testament of his mother. He seemed to believe that she died intestate.) An accounting was filed 4 October 1849. - Sussex Co., Del., Wills, Vol. K-10, pp.149,150,152.

"Charles Frisby Williams was born November 8, 1835. He died in December, 1863, a few months before his son William Williams was born, February 1864. Charles Frisby Williams was a school teacher, also taught music. He died leaving a widow with three babies, each a year apart. William Williams was a decorator, and a good one. He was the father of three children: Hattie, Harvey (deceased), and Torbert of Phila. William Williams' widow married his brother, Charles Williams, and had one son, Irving, now living in Laurel, Del. Hattie married William Leonard, who died many years ago. She has a son, William Torbert Leonard, an accountant in Cincinnati." (Dec. 4, 1947; - abridged, slightly.)

Descendants of

* LOVEY HOLLIS
(Mrs. Samuel Owens Jones)

a daughter of Clark Frisby and Levina (Spence) Hollis.

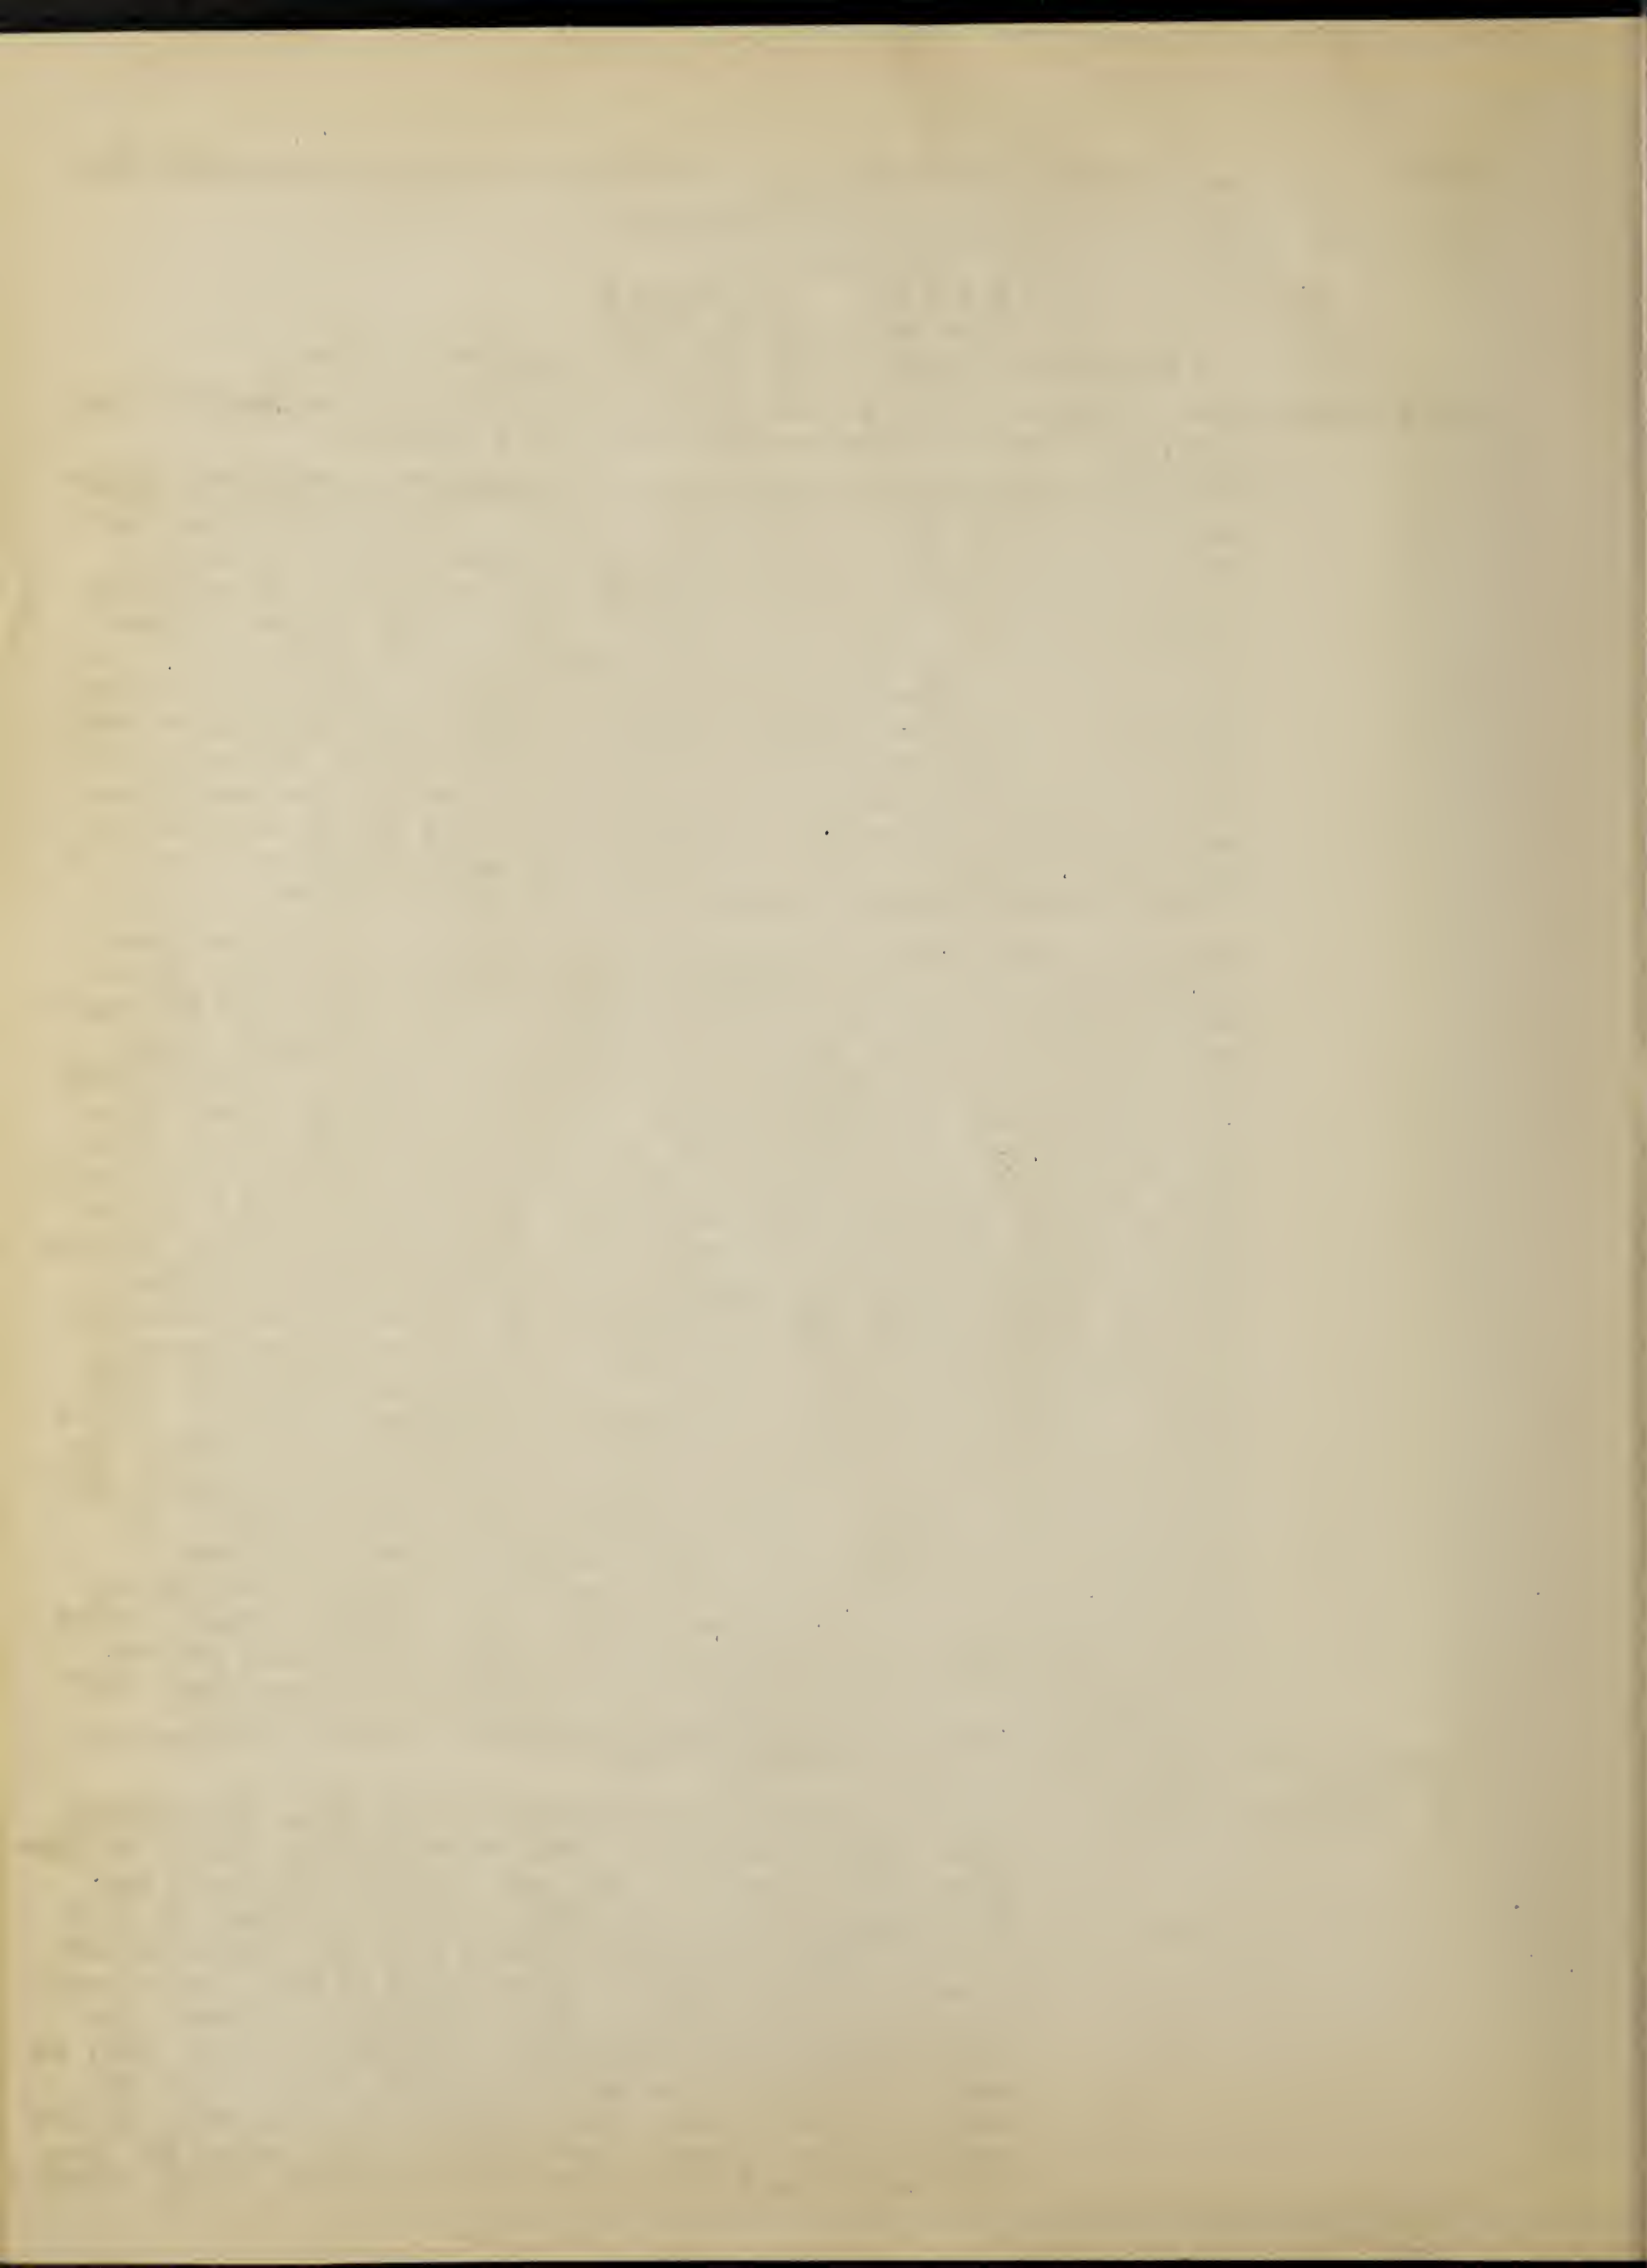

LOVEY HOLLIS, born 14 August 1819; married SAMUEL OWENS JONES (son of Snow and Ann Lingrell Jones) 19 December 1839; and died 9 May 1867.

Snow Jones was born in Massachusetts, 2 December 1791; came to Delaware circa 1810; served in Delaware Militia in War of 1812; married Ann Lingrell, daughter of Nehemiah and Rosanna (Paul) Lingrell, 11 December 1815. Said Nehemiah Lingrell and Rosanna Paul were married in Dorchester Co., Maryland, 23 March 1789. He had served in Maryland Line in Revolutionary War (and, perhaps, in Delaware Line - unless the Del. Archives are in error.) US Census of 1820 lists him as resident of Nanticoke Hundred, Sussex Co., Del. His name was on tax rolls of N.W. Fork Hd., 1812. Pension File # S-36044, National Archives, Wash., D.C., contains his statement of services in Revolution and application for pension. SEE ALSO: PP.728 & 732 of Vol. II, and pp. 1219, 1221, 1225, & 1229 of Vol. III, Delaware Archives; - and p.33 "Maryland Revolutionary Records," by Harry Wright Newman.

There is strong evidence to support the assumption that Snow Jones (1791-1862) was a son of the Snow Jones, Mariner, - who died in Cohasset, Mass., circa 1821, and whose wife Lucretia (then age 57 years) died 1 Jan. 1822. (The latter from records of First Congregational Society, - formerly Second Parish of Hingham, Mass.) CENSUS RECORDS of 1850 and 1860 are contradictory. The former says that Snow Jones was born in Md., - the latter, in Del. Letter of Snow Jones, 1851, says "Mass." was his birthplace. Some of the elder members of the family had it by tradition that "Snow Jones came from England." If he did, he was just there on a voyage! The compiler guesses that someone dropped the "New" from New England in repeating the tale. (Perhaps his New England accent sounded "English" to his Sussex Co., Delaware, neighbors, and gave rise to the legend that he was an Englishman.) HIS RECORD IN WAR OF 1812 WAS GOOD. See: Bounty Land File Wt 32629, 80,55, National Archives; and numerous references in Vols. IV & V of Delaware Archives. (The elder Snow Jones served in Navy, aboard the U.S.S. Enterprise, in 1813; was injured in left arm by grapeshot, and received a NAVY pension. He was in shipwreck of the "Betsey" off Cape Henry, about 1816. - See Navy records, National Archives.) Children of Snow and Ann (Lingrell) Jones were: Samuel Owens Jones, Henry Snow Jones, Ezekiel Jones, William Jones, Charles Jones, George Jones, and daughters Ann and Sarah Jones. (See 1850 Census records reproduced in "Preliminary Report on Descendants of Snow Jones, etc" by Albert D. Bell, 1947, for names of some of their children.)

CHILDREN OF SAMUEL OWENS and LOVEY (HOLLIS) JONES:-

1. JOHN HENRY JONES, - born 3 December 1840; died at Seaford, Del., 6 September 1876. Married Martha J. Knox at Farmington, Del., 10 November 1864. (Martha J. Knox was daughter of Samuel and Sarah Edgell Knox. See "EDGELL NOTES" by Albert D. Bell for her Edgell ancestry; Martha's name in Census record on p. 7 of those notes.) After death of John Henry Jones his widow married James McNulty (1885), S. Chester, Pa. They separated soon thereafter. She died 15 Nov. 1917, at home of granddaughter, Mary L. (Jones) Dehner, wife of Grover C. Dehner, Sr. (She was a great-grandmother of the compiler, who remembers her very clearly; - since he, too, lived in the home of his Aunt Mary and Uncle Grover Dehner.)

- Sussex Co. Deeds, Vol. 54, p. 501, - Georgetown, Del.

On July 31, 1847, Samuel O. Jones purchased from David Taylor, Esq., and wife Elizabeth, a farm of 208 acres then in tenure of Saulsbury Hobbs; possession after 31 December 1847. (His first recorded purchase of land. Later, he purchased other land) - Kent County Deeds, Vol. X-3, p.111, - Dover, Del.

NOTE: - The above items repeated from "Prelim. Report on Descendants of Snow Jones" for benefit of those who do not have a copy. Only 70 copies were made and supply is exhausted. A new and better Jones Report MAY be finished sometime in 1949 or 1950; but tracing Joneses (especially the sea-faring kind) requires infinite patience, good eyesight, and streaks of good fortune, - (and a little more loose change than most rural ministers possess!)

 Snow Jones died in the fall of 1862; exact date unknown. His wife, nee Ann Lingrell, died sometime between 1850 and 1860; - probably in 1858.

Vol. GH-6, p. 319, Series (056) Deeds, " "

William Hollis (V) in 1st U. S. Census of Maryland, 1790.

AMOS HOLLIS (a son of William Hollis III, -p.6) was a member of the first Petit Jury of Harford County, 1774. - p. 66, "History of Harford Co." by Preston.

In the 1776 Census, he was listed as 40 years of age; wife Martha, 30; children: Amos Jr., 11; Abirila, 13; William, 8; James, 5; Benjamin, 3; Cathrin, 11 months.

Amos Hollis, Sr., died 1789. Will recorded in Vol. A.J.#2, p.311, - Bel Air, Md.

Widow, Martha Hollis, listed as head of family in 1790 Census, in Harford Co., Md.

AMOS HOLLIS, Sr., was a brother of William Hollis IV and of Clark Hollis II.

SEE "HARFORD CO. RECORDS," p.3, for more information on probate records before 1850.

MISCELLANY

James Hollis secured pat. for 50 a. "Hollis's Hope". - Dorchester Co., Md., 1746.
DEEDS, Dor. Co., Old #19, p. 388: - Jas. Hollis et ux - to Chas. Goldsboro.

DEED Indices of Kent Co., Md., at Chestertown, show these Hollis references:

William Hollis,	1743,	vol. JS-24,	p. 52
"	"	"	"
"	1745,	"	p. ?
"	1769,	"	DD-3, p. 24
James Hollis,	1798-1808	"	TW-1, pp. 85, 682
"	"	"	TW-2, pp. 320, 322, etc.
Ann Hollis,	1815,	"	BC-8, p. 277

Compiler does not pretend that the above list is complete record of Hollis land transactions in Kent Co. (Hollett, Hollins, and other similar names also appear in same Deed indices. The Hollins family of Maryland is not part of the Hollis family, nor vice versa, and should not be confused.)

*Emmanuel Hollis, 1796, vol. B.C.-4, pp. 223, 400, - Kent Co., Md., Deeds.

PROBATE RECORDS, KENT Co., Md.

Abstract of Will of CHARLES HOLLIS - dated 2 Oct. 1769; probated 23 Nov. 1769

" - to loving wife, DORCAS HOLLIS, all property during her lifetime, - then, property to be sold and money equally divided between grandson John Ambrose Hollis, son of daughter Sarah, and grandson James Hollis, son of William.
- Grandsons to enjoy use of pew in St. Paul's Church after the death of wife Dorcas. This will mentions testator's brother Thomas Jarrom.

#633, Kent Co. Wills, - Md. Archives, Annapolis.

Abstract of Will of DORCAS HOLLIS - dated 23 Mar. 1772; probated 23 April 1772

" - to grandson John Ambrose Hollis, son of my daughter Sarah, certain personal property. To grandson James Hollis, rest of estate. Will mentions Michael Miller, guardian of James Hollis.

#640, Kent Co. Wills, - Md. Archives, Annapolis.

Abstract of Will of WILLIAM HOLLIS - dated 1 May 1767, probated 16 March 1768.

" - to eldest son James Hollis, - negro woman Hannah and her increase. - to youngest son, William Hollis, negro girl named Jane and her increase. "If Jane dies, William to have next child by Hannah." Estate to be sold and proceeds divided; children to get their shares at 19. "Loving wife, Elizabeth," named as principal heir and executrix.

#631, Kent Co. Wills, - Md. Archives, Annapolis.

The compiler has seen no will or other probate record in Maryland or Delaware (of the period) by which the ancestry of the Kent County (Md.) Hollis family can be established. Its members do not appear to have been very closely related to the Hollis family of Baltimore County (later, Harford), - if at all! - UNLESS CLARK HOLLIS, I., HAD CHILDREN. (He died in 1721, Baltimore Co., Md. - See: pp. 2 & 6 of these Notes.

The 1st US Census, 1790, lists: James, Peter, Richard, Thomas, and William Hollis as heads of families in CHESTER COUNTY, PA. - Amos, Claradine, Clark, Martha, Mrs. - and William in Maryland, 1790. Claradine Hollis left no Hollis heirs.
The 1st US Census of 1790, Massachusetts, lists: Adam, Ambrose, Daniel, David, David, Elijah, James, James Jr., John, John, John Jr., Joseph, Nathan, Nathaniel, Samuel, Silas, Simeon, Stephen, Thomas, & Thomas HOLLIS as heads of families in that State. (-most of them around Braintree, Mass.)

We know that there were some Hollises in Virginia. (Fairfax Co., circa 1765)

EARLY SETTLERS OF MARYLAND: (include) Ambrose Hollis, 1668/9; Elizabeth Hollis, 1664; Henry Hollis, 1663; James Hollis, 1679; John Hollis, c. 1635; and William Hollis, 1659.

Barbary & Nicholas Hollis, headrights, by Arthur Robins, 13 Mar. 1666/7 - Accomac Co. Va.
Edmond Hollis, headright under Col. Edm. Scarborough, 16 Aug. 1667. Accomac Co., Va.
- But they must have gone elsewhere, immediately. Name of Hollis does not appear in ANY other Accomac or Northampton Co., Va., records compiled by Stratton Nottingham.
